

Section One: Access Control

Organizations shall implement access control mechanisms that enforce the principle of least privilege. Access shall be granted based on roles and responsibilities, with periodic reviews to ensure continued necessity.

Section Two: Audit Logging

All access events must be logged and monitored. Audit logs shall include user identification, timestamp, resource accessed, and action performed. Logs must be retained for a minimum of 90 days and protected from tampering.